Did you know? Less than two decades ago, Centennial Olympic Park's neighborhood was a run-down part of town. One day Atlanta Committee for the Olympic Games CEO Billy Payne imagined a glorious gathering spot for the 1996 Centennial Olympic Games and for years to come. Atlanta responded to that vision with tremendous support. The estimated $75 million in development costs came entirely in the form of commemorative bricks.

The Junior Achievement's Chick-fil-A Discovery Center is located off of Marta Blue Line and would be a $5 round-trip fare, plus $1 for a Breeze Card. Please visit <http://www.itsmarta.com> for more information on planning your trip.

Once you have arrived at the Dome/GWCC/Phillips Arena/CNN Center station, follow the signs to exit to the Georgia World Congress Center. You will need to exit the station and walk across a small street to enter the Convention Center. You will enter in Building A. Follow the signs to Building C. There is an estimated 7-10 minute walk (inside the building) to the Discovery Center, located on the mezzanine level of Building C.

There are officers and GWCC staff members who will be able to provide you with directions, once inside.
